The Millionaire Testifies at the Inquest on Norcross.

He Didn't Believe the Bomb-Thrower Had Any Dynamite.

Laidlaw Testifies That He Was Used as a Shield and Sage Denies It.

Coroner Messemer began this morning an omeial inquiry into the cause of the death of Henry L. Norcross, the man who threw a dynamite bomb in Russell Sage's office on Dec. 4 last, and who was one of the victims of his own mad act.

A jury of well-known business men, headed by Millionaire Henry Clews, had been summoned to be present in the Coroner's office at 10 o'clock. The twelve men were on time, but at 10.45 o'clock Coroner Messemer had not made his appearance, and the jurors

[APECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] NEWARK, March 11.—Rev. Father Joseph All, assistant priest of the Catholic Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, was arraigned Many of Brooklyn's Clergy and Lalty before Police Justice Hayes this morning, on the charge of criminally assaulting a pretty nine-year-old pupil of the Italian parochial school at Ferry and McWhorter streets, attached to the church and over which Father All has immediate jurisdiction, tary to Archbishop Corrigan, Chancelor of The alleged victim is little Marie Rose Bastit, daughter of an industrious Italian named Angelo Bastli, who lives on Madison

The alleged assault was committed Tuesday afternoon, when the little girl, who was Pope Leo III. and the news reached New leaving school in company with her mates, says that the priest called to her from the door of his study, where he was watching the time fact that he had received an efficial letpupils. She went over to him, she says, when he took her in his study, and there the alleged assault took place.

She escaped at last, and ran home and told her father. The latter was furious. He called at Police Headquarters and told Chief Hopper what his little girl had said. The chief was loath to believe it, and the

My child's life and my reputation have been ruined. I will show you what I think of the law?

Then he dashed off, and later his wife went to Chief Hoppier and begged him to save her husband from committing muder.

Now thoroughly aroused, the police began an investigation. Police Surgeon Clark became theroughly convinced that the girl's story of assault was true whether Father All was the guilty party or not, and yesterday Justice Hayes issued a warrant for the priest sarrest.

The priest was not to be found, neither was Basili, who was said to be looking for the alleged destroyer of his daughter with a lig revolver. Last hight, however, Police man Allison heard cries for being on Market street, and discovered the priest strugging in the powerful grasp of the frantic father, who had captured him just as humped off an Eric train from Passaic.
